

Announcing the 2nd Annual Maryland Microbrewery Festival Homebrew Competition

The 2009 Maryland Microbrewery Festival will be held on Saturday, September 26 at Union Mills Homestead in Westminster, Maryland. For the second year, the festival will feature a homebrew competition. The Best Of Show round will be judged at the Festival, and the winning recipe will be brewed by Dog Brewing Company of Westminster, and served at Buffalo Wild Wings' Maryland locations.

This year's competition styles:

- Scottish Export 80/- (Category 9C)
- and -
- Belgian Dubbel (Category 18B)

Entry Period:

Entries must be received between August 31—September 13 at one of the following locations:

1. Baldwin: The Thirsty Brewer
2. Columbia: Maryland Homebrew (also accepting shipped entries)
3. Frederick: The Flying Barrel
4. Severna Park: Annapolis Homebrew
5. Westminster: 741 Windsor Drive (residence)

Open to Maryland residents or members of any Maryland-based homebrew club, this BJCP-sanctioned competition will be judged against the 2008 BJCP Beer Style Guidelines.

So brewers, start your burners! Get complete rules and an online Entry Form at:

<http://home.comcast.net/~midnighthomebrewers/>